SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1865.

Death of Robert Colden.

The steamer brings announcement of the death, at Cheltenham, England, on the 10th inst., of Robert Colden, aged 70 years. Mr. Colden was born in 1794. He was formerly a cotton planter in Louisiana, and was the author of several works, among which are "Letters on Slavery," "Letters on Abolition," and "Results by a Merchant of Manchester." He was present at the first meeting held with the freedom of the city of London in 1862, and was a resident advocate of the leftist and red colonization theory of settling the negroes in the United States in 1858, and eight or several years ago. He was a member of the Irish society of London for Rochdale. He belonged to the extreme Liberal party, of which John Bright is leader.

Capture of Mobile.

Our forces besieging Mobile capture Spanish Fort on the 8th and Blakely fell on the 9th, after a terrible fight of 36 hours. On the 10th the city of Mobile surrendered. As Gen. Canby's army had 30,000 prisoners more taken, some 300 pieces of artillery and much other property. Our losses in the capture of the fortifications are now in Mobile. The extent of their important capture we have not been able to learn, the fact, however, is of a glorious character.

Andrew Johnson's "policy" is to be inaugurated in a speech he made in Washington on a week past from Monday. He can make a speech if he is inclined in a speech he made in Washington on a week past from Monday. He can make a speech if he is inclined. He can make a speech if he is inclined in a speech he made in Washington on a week past from Monday. He can make a speech if he is inclined.

It appears that Andrew Johnson's nobody had a speech to make. He was in the habit of making speeches in the time of the two Presidents, and was forewarned in many instances of the approach of the storm. Forwell, of Wisconsin, who called at his hotel immediately after Johnson had retired for the night, and expressed him of the horrible fact. Immediately upon receiving the news, he ordered his carriage and drove to the residence of Vice President Johnson, and informed him of the horrible fact.

CAPT. JAMES A. CAMPBELL, late of the 39th Reg. Indiana volunteers, has our thanks for late Louisville papers.

It has been running almost constantly during the past three days which is causing the grass, wheat, &c., to spring up in rapid rate. Trees are fast leaving out, and this spring bids fair to be more advanced than usual, at this time of the year.

The S. S. Association will hold a concert of a package of Sunday goods, from the S. S. Society at Goshen, per Mrs. Sarah Pumell.

MRS. M. E. GORDON,

The Elkhart Review under the caption of war speeches, dated, "Camp H Dana, Ky., has reversed publication after a suspension of two or three weeks, we presume that would be more in keeping with the times. We look forward for future efforts of Mr. Wheat as he has for short time finished an acceptable paper to the good people of Elkhart.

NOT A CATCHPENNY.—Mr. Henry C. Brown was announced in our columns last week as a candidate for Sheriff. This was done without Mr. Brown's authority and desire, and when he saw it in print he asked the withdrawal of his name. Mr. Brown is a gentleman of worth and ability, and would make a good officer, but he is not the man who accepts a confidence of the people in this manner, and we take this occasion to contradict all the offers in connection to our paper of his name as candidate.

RUSSIA LAFAYETTE HERALD.—The cards signed white is capture, through the accidents of peace and war, and are now safe in the citizens of Westville, for the reception and assistance of the returning soldiers, or during his late sickness, and especially to those who have returned to their homes through their place and to this city.

UNION CONVENTION.—The Union voters of the city of Laporte are requested to meet at Hostetter's Hall, on Saturday evening, the 29th inst., at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor, and such other business as may be found to be filled at the ensuing city election as it is hoped that every Union voter will attend promptly.

The Union citizens in each ward are requested to meet at the usual place of holding their annual election in Laporte on Saturday evening, the 29th inst., following, and select candidates for the City Council.

LIFE AND DEATH OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN.—We have received from the publishers, D. Stockton, of Hartford, Conn., a copy of a pamphlet, written by Dr. Bakker of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Surgeon Major of the 16th Connecticut regiment, who was stationed at Plymouth, North Carolina about a year ago. The book is a work of the day and deals in facts, and presents every appearance of merit. We are pleased with its appearance, the matter, the paper, the style, and the general execution of the work generally, and doubt not that it will have a ready sale. Dr. Bakker will be in Laporte and vicinity the first of next week, and will undoubtedly receive a liberal patronage. Price 25 cents.

The citizens of Laporte would ever remember the gallant deeds of our brave soldiers, and the sacrifices they have made for our country, and the blessings we enjoy as a result of their heroism, and the blood they have shed in defense of our liberties, and the preservation of our Union, and the perpetuity of our free institutions. Therefore,

Resolved, That we will erect a monument to the memory of the brave soldiers who have fallen in battle, or died in the service of their country, and that we will do all in our power to make the monument worthy of the noble dead, and worthy of the people who erect it.

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH,

An excellent Lotion if otherwise needing four bottles to thoroughly cure any case. Where the Blood is vitiated and corrupted, its pure influence is felt throughout the whole system, and every function of the body performs its office healthily. Therefore for one, well founded on reason, we say to the afflicted, use Helmbold's Extract Buchu, and for the other, use Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla. Both of these are prepared expressly for medicinal purposes, and are the only preparations of the kind worthy the attention of the afflicted. Their power and virtues are unequalled by any other remedies in the known world.
